

The argument that because Southwest controls 90% of the market that they should be allowed to control 100% is a ridiculous argument! Monopolies should be prevented, not encouraged! The public must be allowed more choices, not be forced to choose between monopolies!